Godspell I, the visionary hit musical, first opened more than 40 years ago off-Broadway, and has thrilled, entertained and prodded audiences around the world ever since. A critically-acclaimed Broadway version just opened in November 2011 in New York. Now Highlands United Church in North Vancouver, known far and wide for its musical leadership, hosts a new cast of Jesus and his disciples for four nights in February. From the musical numbers you know so well—like Day By Day and Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord—to vaudeville, pop and gospel inspired song-and-dance numbers, Godspell I is a great performance based on the parables and the story that have held our attention for more than 2,000 years.

Doug and Gillian Irwin are sharing the responsibilities of Artistic Director for Godspell. Before retiring as Windsor Secondary's Choral Music Director and Fine Arts Department Head, Doug enjoyed tremendous success producing Broadway Musicals with his students and the Windsor community. Many will remember his outstanding productions of Oklahoma!, The Music Man, Hello, Dolly!, and Fiddler on the Roof presented at North Vancouver's Centennial Theatre. Gillian has always been involved with the Windsor shows, usually as the Choral Director, but has produced bi-annual musicals of her own at Sherwood Park Elementary School. After 36 years of teaching in North Vancouver and Vernon, Gillian retired last June and is now enjoying her work on this new project. She conducted Genesis Too, a Highlands youth choir, for 23 years, and is still the director of the adult choir, the Spirit Singers. Together, Gill and Doug are two of the directors of Highlands' Summer Musical Theatre Camp, an annual weeklong event for school-age children to learn about and perform in a musical! Godspell is the first full scale musical production performed at Highlands.
